About Al-Ayn

At Al-Ayn, our goal is to empower every orphaned child in poverty. We believe that when a child is supported, their own future is transformed as well as their families and society at large.

In 2006, Al-Ayn (Iraq) started providing care and support to orphaned children and their families. Today, Al-Ayn (Iraq) serves over 97,000 orphaned children living in poverty.

We aim to build on over 17 years of experience to ensure our services have a lasting impact for all orphaned children, wherever they may be. From Iraq to Afghanistan and Ghana, we want to ensure that every orphaned child living in poverty receives the care and support that they need, empowering them to follow their life choices and reach their potential.

Volunteer with Al-Ayn

Volunteers have made Al-Ayn Social Care Foundation what it is today. We currently support over 97,000 orphaned children in Iraq, Afghanistan and Ghana. We would not have achieved this without the dedication and commitment of our volunteers who selflessly give their time and support. We have a range of opportunities for you to choose from:

Zahra's Story

From the first moment I started volunteering for Al-Ayn, I knew that I was part of something truly special.

Everyone here has a special role to play. The teamwork is like nothing I've seen before. I think it's because we see how our combined efforts are truly making such an amazing difference to the lives of orphaned children.

I have made lifelong friends at Al-Ayn. We share the same values, the same goals and we all enjoy the same things. The staff at Al-Ayn made me feel so comfortable right from the start. They are always around if I ever have any questions or need any support.

Most importantly, I feel valued.
And I value the work that Al-Ayn is doing to help orphaned children in need.
